Local Music Teacher & Students Receive National Recognition

Mrs. J. Franklin Vaughan

Howard Anderson

Students from the ALLEGRO STUDIO, home of Mrs. J. Franklin Vaughan, have entered 59 original compositions in the International Annual Composition test sponsored by the American College of Musicians and the National Guild of Piano Teachers. Each student will receive a composer medal and certificate.

The composition of Howard Anderson, student at the Appomattox County Primary School and the son of Mrs. Virginia Shelton, was selected as a National honorable mention. His composition was entitled "Reaching The Peace Treaty."

Hazel Ghazarian Skaggs, the national judge, was very complementary to all students who entered from this class and rated them highly. Excerpts from her comments to Mrs. Vaughan are as follows: "I believe this is the first time that I have ever received fifty-nine enteries from one given teacher. You are certainly a unique teacher and your students are fortunate that you have such faith in all of them to compose. Each one of them submitted a commendable composition of from 16 to 24 measures and they have lived up to your expectations. Your work proves that every child can compose provided there is a teacher who has faith in his ability. Of course, there's more to it than that, the teacher must know how! I am really amazed at the splendid work you you have done. I should feel very proud had I achieved what you presented in this composition test."

Mrs. Vaughan commented that the students worked very diligently, copying their original compositions many times, each time trying to improve the quality and overall neatness of their delightful compositions. She expresses her appreciation to the National Guild judge for her very gracious and helpful comments and to the students and their parents for their total dedication and cooperation.

Students who entered and their compositions are as follows: Howard Anderson, "Reaching The Peace Treaty;" Bobby Hart, "The Lord of Lords;" Hunter Booth, Little Boogie;" Roberta Booth, A Fancy Dance;" Esther Saunders, March of October;" Holly Neville, Up The Road; Kelly Neville, Pretty Little Dandelion; Susan Morris, Antique Harpsichord; Karen Gilliam, Karen's Echo Song; Jan Armentrout, Smooth Sailing; Ricky Dickerson, The Lonesome Space Man; Mary Helen McLaughlin, Sad and Happy; Laura Doss, Birds; Audra Doss, Neigh For Hay; Lisa Harrison, My New Baby Brother; Kimberly Beale, My Skating Party; Kevin Armentrout, See The Little Rabbitt Hare; Emily Steinkamp, Royal Parade; Shan Womack, Turtle; Susan Hart, Escalator; Dustin Wilhoit, Following A Spider; Kim Krantz, A Train; Tracy Haworth, Love; Avis Knight, Girls; Anne Margaret Haworth, Turtles; Paul Johnson, Roller Skating; Chuck Womack, The Crazy Sound of Blues; Peggy Goin, Prelude; Regina McCormick, A Happy Melody; Alex Almond, Roaring Redskins; Berri Anderson, Little Song; Billy Carter, Space Battle; Cathy Johnson, Snow Fun; Marty Howard, Thinking About Space; Leslie Ranson, Night Time; Kinckle Robinson, Meteorites; Lowane Watkins, Crazy Mule and Cart; Jay Stubblefield, The Airport; Liz Pierce, Motorcycle; Amy Morris, Little Kitten In The Sun; Amanda Walton; The Rabbit Song; Linda St. John, Cypress; Kathy Lewis, Evening Showers; Donna Dickerson, The Waltz of a Princess; Suzette Ranson, Our School Band; Beth Carter, Rain and Sunshine; Elizabeth Saunders, Waltz Featuring The Left Hand Singing; Joann Wooding, Sweet Piano; Rhonda Ranson, Pretty Snowflakes; Darrell Puckett, Broken Heart; Beth Goodwin, Spring Days; Debbie Bryant, Debbie's First Waltz; Maria King, Invention in G Major; Traci Moore, My Dachound; Teresa Warriner, C Minor Prelude; Angela Whitmer, Pretty Rabbits; Melinda Davis, A Summer Evening; Barry Hamlett, Carnival; Kim Johnson, Gymnastics.

Mrs. Skaggs presented one of her own compositions "A Little Invention," to Maria King autographed as follows:To Maria King - talented composer of G Major Invention.

Students from this class have entered compositions in the State and National Federation Contests and are waiting to hear the results; however many of them are already working on new pieces for next year.

Armstrong Presents Furniture to Ronald McDonald House

Richmond's Ronald McDonald House will provide temporary, inexpensive, and if needed, free housing, for families with children who are being treated for childhood cancer or other serious chidhood diseases at a richmond hospital.

The club is proud to announce that the suite is the first piece of furniture to be presented to the home that is now in the process of being readied for occupancy.

FEDERAL SUPPLEMENTAL SECURITY INCOME QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q - My wife and I get monthly SSI payments. Her uncle died recently and left her his house and land. Do we have to report this to social security?

A - Yes. You should notify social security if you or your spouse becomes the owner of any additional real estate. Any change in your resources - what you own - may affect your SSI payments.

Q - After a long illness, my sister passed away last month. I've notified social security to stop her SSI payments. Should I also notify her bank? She had her monthly payments deposited directly into a savings account.

A - If an SSI beneficiary's payments were being deposited directly into an account in a financial institution, the institution should be notified of his or her death as soon as possible. This will permit the institution to return any payments received after the death.

Q - I receive SSI payments. A friend recently moved in with me, and we are going to share the household expenses. Do I have to notify social security of this change in my living arrangements?

A - Yes. You must notify social security if you begin living with others and share in the household expenses. You also should let social security know if there is any change in the amount you or the other contribute to expenses. These changes might cause an increase or decrease in your SSI payments.

A - My grandfather is 69. He has no regular income, but occasionally makes some money doing odd jobs for neighbors. If he applies for SSI, would this money count against him?

A - Not all income is counted indetermining the amount of a person's income for SSI purposes. Irregular or infrequent earned income is not counted if it totals no more than $30 in a calendar quarter. You grandfather can get more information and apply for SSI payments at any social security office.

FBLA Held Spring Banquet

The Appomattox Chapter Future Business Leaders of America held its Annual Spring Banquet on Tuesday, May 8, in the Appomattox County High School cafeteria.

Guest for the evening included Mr. and Mrs. Don Armentrout, Mr. R. B. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. John McLean, and Mr. Lloyd Vaughan. Our most honored guests were the parents of our FBLA members.

After the delicious meal, entertainment was provided by the Mullins family in song. Our FBLA advisors, Mrs. Sandra Frey, Mrs. Jean Holt, Mrs. Cook and Mr. Clark, were presented with a token of appreciation.

Participants in Regional and State FBLA Competition were recognized with a certificate.

Our FBLA member of the year was Sharon Roach who is presently serving as Vice-President of our Chapter. Also honored with an unusual award was Mr. Clark who received "The Navigator of the Year" award presented by Nugene Harvey and Ralph Totty.

Our Chapter President, Rita Reynolds, was presented with a gift as a token of the Chapter's appreciation for her dedication and hardwork.

The FBLA officers for 1979-80 were installed and asked to stand. The FBLA officers for 1978-79 wish the new officers the best of luck in the leadership of the club next year.

The Annual Spring Banquet was adjourned by our President, Rita Reynolds.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Roy May of Route 1, Appomattox, announce the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Cozette May, to Randy Warren Hawkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Warren Hawkins, Jr. of Danville.

The bride-elect graduated from Prince Edward Academy, Farmville, and is a July candidate for a BS degree in Business Administration from Averett College in Danville.

Miss May is the granddaughter of Mrs. David Richard McSwain of Forest City, N.C., and the late Mr. McSwain. She is also the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Eugene May.

The prospective bridegroom attended George Washington High School and graduated from Piedmont Technical Institution in Roxboro, N.C. He is now employed by Village Sports, Danville.

Mr. Hawkins is the grandson of Mrs. Mary O. Hawkins of Roxboro, N.C. and the late Mr. Lewis Warren Hawkins. Sr. He is also the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Newman of Danville.

The wedding is planned for August 12 at Providence Baptist Church, Red House, VA.,

MRS. STEPHEN DENNIS DRUEN
the former Joan Carwile Morris

Druen-Morris Ceremony Held

The marriage of Joan Carwile Morris, daughter of Mrs. Richard Carroll Carwile, of Pamplin, and the late Mr. Carwile, to Stephen Dennis Druen, son of Mrs. James Daniel Druen, of Rice, and the late Mr. Druen, took place at 2 p.m. April 21, in Jamestown Presbyterian Church in Rice.

The Reverend William Lockett Wilson, uncle of the groom, and the Reverend John Mitchell, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Escorted and given in marriage by her brother, James Henry Carwile, the bride wore a long gown of ivory qiana and lace.

Mrs. Rowana Crane, of Appomattox, was matron of honor. Other attendants were Mrs. Eunice Ward Carwile, of Tuggle, sister-in-law of the bride, and Lorrie Anne Wilkins, of Abilene, cousin of the bride.

William Hopkins, of Cambridge, Massachusetts, served as best man. Ushers were Wilson Druen and Charles Daniel Druen, of Rice, brothers of the groom, and John Wilson, of Farmville, uncle of the groom.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will reside in Rice.

Area Students Receive Degrees

Longwood College's graduation ceremonies were held on Saturday morning, May 12. A total of 470 degrees were awarded, including 413 baccalaureate degrees and 57 master's degrees.

From Appomattox County, Anita Lynn Glover of Pamplin received her B.S. degree in Physics, summa cum laude; Faye Deborah Scott of Pamplin received her B.S. degree in History; and Sharon Swanson White received her B.A. degree in Elementary Education.

The diplomas were presented by Longwood's president, Dr. Henry I. Willett, Jr., and vice president for academic affairs, Dr. Carolyn Wells. Immediately following graduation ceremonies, a brunch was held in the Blackwell Dining Hall for the graduates, their guests, and members of the college faculty.

Founded in 1839, Longwood is a four-year, coeducational institution. The college offers a comprehensive curriculum with majors in 28 subject areas, as well as professional training for social work, business, the health sciences and teaching.
